

Playing in Jah's waterfall [Verse]
I don't care who call me, no Bbm G# C# Fm
I'll never be one of dem who
Come and try to mix it up, mix it up
So them stand and say - We must protect our world today
While all of ya see the whole of Africa
And watch it turn into a desert (D#m C# x4)

[Bridge] (G# Bbm x4)
(There was a gifted man - Never knew how to plan, yeah)
(For) the future of all creation
(So he became a soldier man who
Shot I for no reason - Dropped bombs in a foreign land
Here on Earth, they've wasted away their lives
Pitting I and I against one another)

[Intro & Link]
Well, it seems they will answer Fm Fm D#m D#m
To our son and daughter in this time Fm Fm F# F#
But for now, they say, oh God
Go away children, go away children, children go away

Playing in Jah's waterfall - One day it cease to fall, yes
We've cut down all the trees
And watched the anima-als die from diseases
I dropped down on my knees and pray - Ohh I Father, take I
Won't you save us as you saved Noah
Ham, Shem and Japhet [Solo - Bridge] [Link]

Playing in Dunn's riverfall - I don't care who call me, no
For some of dem see the world, yeah - And try to escape it
Turning their back pon the land, yeah-eh
Watching the mountain turn into sand
But as long as my heart bea-eats on
I will fight to rebuild mount Zion

Waterfall Groundation

[Bridge]
(There was a holy land - Far beyond the ocean, yeah)
(Holding) (Only to vanish in a vi-ision, yeah
Speaks of generation - Destroying their ho-homeland
I am crying on behalf of our children - The day must come when we will learn to live together) [Link]

(Playing in Jah's waterfall, (yeah/...) - ((That's all I (wanted/ever needed))/Oh God, forever) x1~2~1)
