

Somebody smart once spoke and said
Don't put into your mouth

Tum Rakak
Deluxe

what you picked up from the floor
Yet I keep stumbling in the weirdest scenes Warnings sure did ignore, sniffing the carpet for Treasures lost and engulfed real deep
Leftover party crumbs, cat hair, blueberry gum
Someday the worms will find this bottom
Itch it right to the core, give me my due and more

[Link] Dm Gm F A - Dm Gm F E5

Do dial on when you - Feel we've gone beneath
I'll remind you where - I've been hiding the keys

[Chorus - Intro]

I ain't never taking no - Dumb blind chance again Until another curiosity - Tumbles in

I ain't never taking no [Intro]

Taking no dumb blind chance again Dm Am
Till another curiosity Gm F7-A7
Knocks me in the chin Dm Am
(... - ((No blind chance) again/...) x2) Gm (F7-Es4)

Nobody right wants a spanking - In public for all to know how close they're to the bone
Bluest of skies, they just seem to fall
Whenever badussy pores bloom into metaphors
Future costs more than what's left - Of assets long gained at birth, like Theuderic the first Gathering steam it seems

I'd rather mess it all up before [Link] crumbling under the bore [Chorus] (.../)
(x3~1)

The truck it reeks, my butt is weak [Outro
The sun, the heat is turning us Intro]
Into rotting meat, oh, soaked wet seats (.../X X Gm)
My soul it leeks, please do something (x2)
