

[Hook] [Intro] Gm F D# D# - (Jah Jah is real - ... x2) (Dem go-o-one - (So far away/Di all a-dem a-go regret it one day) x2)

Every day you get up and wish to have a meal
Now you get a cut and wish to have it heal
Still you can not accept that Jah Jah is real Tell me Mr. Man, say what's the deal
You say you have everything sign and seal =====
Thought you won the case but tow you a-appeal Dem
You are the one who couldn't hear, || Gone
now you the one to feel || Gentleman
Evidently clear we choppin' down your shield =====
Dem ain't going nowhere no time soon
Dem corrupt the east and now dem turn it to the Moon
Plant ina your garden and wish that it will bloom
Still you're singing Satan tunes

[Ho-
Mother earth was meant for man and woman to stay ok]
Me find out nuff a-dem drifting away
Children can't even find a place fi play
Birds can't find no seeds, horses no hay
I see the weavers weaving but dem income delay
Still me see dem searching for a brighter day
And now me come fi give it to you right away
Do you hear what I say [Hook]

Whapen' them, give me the mic deh for a moment
Make me talk to dem and watch the eden dem a-scatter
When we walk to dem and if you know you are no guilty
Stand up and don't you run, no, no
To all my foes and friends, you may live to see today
But you nuh know the end,
just read the writings on the wall
It's a message we send and Babylon will never live to stop [Intro]
The rising of Jah son, well, then [Hook]
