

[Intro] G G D D - Em Em C C

Well, I don't have as many friends because
I'm not as pretty as I was
I've kicked myself at times
Because I've lied
So I will have to learn to stand my ground
I'll tell 'em I won't be around
I'll move on over to your town and hide

The Captain
Kasey Chambers

[Chorus] (G G D D - Em Em C C x2)

((G G D D - C C x1) C C x1)

And you be the captain - And I'll be no one
And you can carry me away - If you want to
And you can lay low - Just like your father
And if I tread upon your feet
You just say so
(('Cause you're the captain, () I am no one
(I tend to feel as though I owe one to you)
(...) x1) - To you x1)

[Intro]

Well, I have handed all my efforts in
Searched here for my second wind
Is there somewhere here to let me in - I asked
So I slammed the doors they slammed at me
I found the place I'm meant to be
I figured out my destiny at last [Chorus]

... - Did I forget to thank you [Li- G G B7 C
For the ride, I hadn't tried nk] D G Em D
I tend to runaway and hide C C C C

[Chorus] (.../and) (.../And I owe one) (/...) (x2~1)
[Intro] [Outro] G G D D - (C C x4) (x2)
