And all our feeling goes dead Em Am D Em (x2)

when we switch on that channel
So over fed with the terrible flannel
Try to switch off my head, use my soul instead
So I'll get ahead of these things, I said

[Chorus]
There's a soul, soul - A soulstorm-orm everywhere
It's a-(everywhere x2) - A soulstorm-orm everywhere

I was taught that talk is cheap
And I have learned that love is deep God gave me my soul to keep
So I talk love a whole big heap
And I will not point a finger
For it is timeless and will linger
I keep my own words down so I won't drown
Repeat one more time, don't hinder

So I'll just break - It down, down, no doubt

I got up out of bed one misty morning, found myself sitting there and brainstorming
About how to be true without being corny, do some soulstorming
Must be the benefit of the global warming,
I realized that there ain't no harm in Planting soul and a little farming, do some soul farming [Interlude]
